

Sheeba Dandurand Joins ScienceFirst

CEDAR KNOLLS, NJ, August 13, 2008--ScienceFirst is pleased to announce Sheeba Dandurand has joined the Cedar Knolls office as Program Manager.

Prior to joining ScienceFirst, Sheeba Dandurand held the position of Associate for Booz Allen Hamilton in McLean, Virginia, providing strategic management consulting services for global healthcare, pharmaceutical and government healthcare clients. Dandurand also contributed internal strategic initiatives for the planning and management of human capital while at Booz Allen Hamilton.

Dandurand's education includes a BA in Economics and Management from Durham University, England. Dandurand holds a Drug Development Certificate from Temple University and is currently pursuing her MS, Quality Assurance/Regulatory Affairs at Temple University.

About ScienceFirst

ScienceFirst LLC is a leading provider of strategic medical communication services and provides pharmaceutical and medical marketers with a strong integrated approach to medical communications. ScienceFirst is committed to improving product and portfolio performance by facilitating the conversion of scientific information into medical knowledge and improved health outcomes. For more information please visit www.science-first.com.

###

For further information contact:

Theresa Lukey, Account Director, 973.540.9990, or tlukey@science-first.com